Hi, I'm Deborah and I am an avid bird lover. I have an Umbrella Cockatoo named Dutch who is my cherished pet of 14 years.

I started making artwork for friends and family with his feathers when they fell out and soon realized what a gift he had given me :)

Now I use cruelty-free feathers naturally molted from a variety of birds to make unique artwork for you and your friends and family.

Trudi Ann Moore, a spiritual writer, believes the color of feathers have meaning:

- White feathers peace and calling a truce
- Peacock pride
- Red feathers strength
- Yellow feathers cheerfulness
- Orange feathers attraction, energy, success
- Black with shine mystical insight
- Black and white mixed union and protection

Feathers symbolize peace, upliftment, joy, lightness

SO LET YOUR SPIRIT TAKE FLIGHT!

ENJOY!
